

DOUBLE TOWER, COGNITIVE/CREATIVE

PCM200107

This thrilling, activity packed play unit appeals to children with its varied play activities. The ladder forms a fast access to the fireman's pole, the dare devil, thrilling exit. While waiting for their turn, the children can enjoy the tic-tac-toe. The curved bridge is fun to balance over, trying out the loud speaker and other tactile elements. The big house is a meeting point with tactile details to explore while waiting for your turn to slide. Sliding supports balance and posture, both important for managing the world securely. On ground level, play panels form two play spaces. The clock panel encourages numerous dramatic play scenarios. Supported by the turn desk and numbers panel on the other side, there is ample stimulation of dramatic play, stimulating language skills. The funnel and sand scoop panel trains logical thinking skills and the understanding of object permanence.
