

Eagle Eye Networks GDPR Compliance Statement

Eagle Eye Networks, Inc. and Eagle Eye Networks B.V. (collectively “Eagle Eye Networks”) hereby declare that, in their legal capacity as processor of personal data under the Agreement, all processing acts performed under the Agreement or as otherwise instructed are in full compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union (GDPR).

Eagle Eye Networks has taken many steps to ensure this compliance, including but not limited to:

- We only process personal data in a lawful, fair and transparent way.
- We require all our employees, contractors, and other third party suppliers that might come in contact with personal data to act in compliance with the GDPR;
- For EU customers, footage is stored in datacenters in EU countries.
- We only transfer personal data to countries that have an adequate level of legal privacy protection, or with controller’s consent. We use the European Commission-approved Model Clause International Data Transfer Agreements for transfers from the EU to the United States of America;
- In developing our services, we protect personal data by design and by default;
- We have taken appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure safe handling of the personal data;
- Data retention of personal data is always limited to providing the Service requested by you, unless otherwise required by law;
- In case of a data breach, we inform the required parties as soon as possible;
- We have a public privacy policy describing to data subjects how to exercise their rights, and will forward requests to the data controller as soon as possible;
- We have appointed a Data Protection Officer.

Eagle Eye Networks takes privacy and data security very seriously. Eagle Eye Networks also strives to assist its resellers and customers to also be in compliance with all relevant privacy legislation.
